AMERICAN TROOPS IN PURSUIT OF MEXICAN BANDITS

Additional Airplanes are Sent to Assist in the Hunt for the Bandits

Tanks and Other War Supplies Have Been Ordered Sent to the Mexican Border

(By United Press)

El Paso, Aug. 20—Four troops of the 8th United States cavalry were reinforced with fourteen more aeroplanes at Ft. Bliss in search for the Mexican bandits who captured Peterson and Davis.

Last night was spent in a fireless camp in the Ojinaga country. The American troops led by Captain Matlock with the two aviators as guides took up the almost hopeless case. A cloudburst had obliterated the trail. The only contact reported with the Mexicans was the pilot of one plane which returned to Marfa with bullet riddled wings. Three Mexicans fired on his machine and he returned the firing with a machine gun killing one Mexican he thought.

Captain Matlock, who paid $8,500 of the $15,000 ransom, and galloped off with Lieut. Davis to the stupified surprise of the bandits said before returning back into Mexico, "I am going to get back that money."

With canyons and hills according the bandits hiding places the American troops are confronted with a difficult task, but the military authorities are hopeful that Renteria's band will be overtaken. They believe the bandits will be captured or killed. Major General Dickman, commander of the southern department is expected to reach Marfa today to direct a border operation in the Big Bend district.

WAP SUPPLIES ORDERED SENT TO MEXICAN BORDER

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 20—One hundred tanks of the one-man type and three hundred thousand rifles have been forwarded from the army depot here to Fort on or near the Mexican border in the past week. The consignment was divided between San Antonio and Fort Bliss.

Pipe Built Like a Cornet.

A tobacco pipe of unusual design has been invented by Warren Murray Baerchtel of Hagerstown, Md. Every pipe smoker knows that the longer the stem of his pipe the longer will be the smoke. Pipes with stems a few feet long have been in use in different countries for many years, but their awkward length precluded their use outside of the house. The inventor of the pipe circumvented the difficulty by coiling the stem of the pipe like the tube of a cornet or signal horn. The coils are connected at their lower end to form a dripping chamber for receiving the saliva which accumulates in the stem. Each coil has an independent opening into the dripping chamber and a screw cap at the bottom gives access to it for the removal of the accumulated saliva. The smoke, in passing through the coils of the stem, is drained several times of saliva and nicotine.

Prelude to Adventure.

"I have placed my will in my safety deposit box," grimly said J. Fuller Gloom. "My pockets are filled with condensed and desiccated foods. I shall attach the end of this stout cord to a convenient projection, light a candle and enter, crawling carefully among the stalactites and stalagmites, paying out the cord as I go, and—"

"Great heavens, Mr. Gloom!" ejaculated an acquaintance. "Are you contemplating exploring some vast and dismal cavern?"

"Yes. I am going into our Kansas City post office for the purpose of having weighed, purchasing stamps for, and mailing this parcel-post package."

British Sink 4 Russ Ships in Sea Battle

Bolshevik Battleship, Cruiser, Transport and Guardship Go Down—English Lose Three Vessels, 11 Men—Kronstadt is Reported Burning

London, Aug. 20—The British admiralty confirmed today the sinking of the bolshevik battleship Petropavlovsk, the battleship Andea Pervosvan and a bolshevik destroyer by British naval forces during an engagement in the Gulf of Finland. A Russian cruiser probably was seriously damaged, it was announced.

Helsingfors, Aug. 20—The bolshevik battleship Andea Pervosvan, the battleship Petropavlovsk, a transport and a guard ship are reported to have been sunk during an engagement with the British fleet in the Gulf of Finland on Sunday. The British are said to have lost three motor-boats and to have had eight officers and three men killed.

The Andre-Pervosvan was reported as probably sunk by a torpedo near Kronstadt, June 19. At the same time it was reported the Petropavlovsk had hoisted the white flag.

The Pervosvan was 454 feet long, carried normally a crew of 923 men and was armed with four 12 inch guns, 14 8 inch guns, 12 4.7 inch guns and a heavy minor battery.

The Petropavlovsk was 590 feet long, with a displacement of 23,730 tons. It carried 12 12 inch guns and the usual batteries of smaller weapons.

Stockholm, Aug. 19—The reinforced fleet which has been engaged with bolshevik war vessels is concentrated against Kronstadt, the naval port of Petrograd, a dispatch from Helsingfors says. The city of Kronstadt is reported to be burning.

The bolshevik submarine depot ship Viatka is reported to have been sunk in an engagement off the Tolb-Cukin lighthouse, several miles northwest of Kronstadt.

Americans Eat Little Mutton.

In Great Britain about 22 per cent of all meat consumed is mutton. In France it is about 11 per cent. In Canada it is not quite 7, and in the United States is only about 3 1/2 per cent. Last year (1918) the consumption of dressed meat (lard excluded) in the United States averaged 150 pounds per person, of which only 5 were mutton and lamb.

The British, the Canadians, and the French—all similar types of people and having habits of life similar to Americans—use less meat than Americans do, but a much larger proportion comes from sheep. The United States gets its meat principally from cattle and hogs. Pork consumption is about 14 times, and beef consumption about 13 times, as great as our use of mutton and lamb. These are the annual averages for last year.

Drastic Action Against Retailers Contemplated

Farmers and Farm Organizations are Exempted from Hoarding Law

(By United Press)

Washington, Aug. 20—The government intends to take drastic action against retail profiteers of the country. It is believed they are the main cause for high prices.

Attorney General Palmer today told the house agricultural committee the department has had four complaints against retail "gougers". Palmer said we don't want to punish the big packers alone and let the little gougers go free.

The Attorney General opposed the plan of Chairman Haugen to establish a system of executive price forces claiming it would require several months to build up an organization that would determine what fair prices should be. Regarding the farmers and farm organizations, Palmer said they are exempt from the hoarding law as they should be allowed to hold their crop until they desire to sell it.

(By United Press)

Mexico City, Aug. 20—Sensational reports that the British charge d'affaires Wm. D. Cummings has been expelled from Mexico because he was persona non grata with the Mexican government were denied at the foreign office yesterday. The United States correspondent was told that Carranza had notified the state department of the government that Cummings had no official standing because of his attitude toward the British government, and because he refused to recognize the present Mexican administration. The report that any friction had occurred was denied.

BOOZELESS FRONTIER DAY BIG SUCCESS

Cheyenne Wyo., Aug. 20 (United Press)—There was an eastern school teacher at the Cheyenne Frontier Days Celebration who thought a bulldog figured in the steer bulldogging event.

But she was not so far from the truth, as were old timers who predicted that "Chen" couldn't stage the great annual show without "booze". The celebration just held was the first under prohibition. And it was the most successful of the frontier days. Crowds, ranging up to 20,000 daily assured that next year and for many years—without liquor—the cowboys will hold forth in their annual festival.

Tent colonies of auto tourists, spread out on the plains near Cheyenne, attested to the widespread popularity of broncho busting, roping, steer bulldogging and horse racing. Cowboys from Chicago to Walla Walla and Cody to Fort Worth were entered in the contests.

Fights Against the League Will Take on New Intensity it is Claimed

BY L. C. MARTIN,

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, August 20—Both friends and foes of the Peace Treaty today professed to be encouraged by the White House conference between President Wilson and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday. Both of the factors in the senate declared that the President's answer to the question seemed to prove that their side is right. Opposing Senators said their position had not been changed. Fights against the Treaty and League will take on new intensity it is believed. League friends have been preparing to force the issue anyhow. A climax seems to be approaching in the situation.

Senator Hitchcock said that the "President terrified doubtful minds in a wonderful way." Senators Borah and Johnson, leaders of the extreme opposition in a joint statement asserted that the President explained "justification and confirmed us in the position we have taken on the League," while Senator Lodge, Republican leader and reservationist, declined from commenting, indicating the belief that the conference had made no impression on the League opponents and proved inspiring to its friends.

Senators said they did not learn all they wanted to learn but laid it to the shortness of the conference. The Committee was to resume public hearing on the treaty with Dr. Ferguson an oriental expert.

Washington, Aug. 20—Pittman's plans he said is to have the interpretations adopted, not only by the United States, but by Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan thus putting them on the League as understanding the peace treaty exactly as the United States understands it. For resolution covering article ten which draws from the League the Monroe Doctrine and domestic question, this said Pittman makes possible the adoption of identical resolutions that the conference named. Pittman's plans came as a great surprise, but it was learned that the administration is planning to have the other powers know how the United States does interpret the treaty.

Lovely Women to Be Lovelier.

American women are growing more beautiful and their loveliness is increasing with every passing year, said
Howard Chandler Christy, famous artist, on the twenty-second anniversary of the beginning of his study of the American woman.

"The American woman, already the fairest on earth, are destined to continue their progress in beauty until they attain a degree of loveliness little dreamed of by the average male of today," he said.

Christy added that whether this feminine progress will prove a boon to the other side of the house all depends on the viewpoint.

"The reason America's girls are becoming more bewitching," he explained, "is because being beautiful is an art—and the American women are keeping ahead of their foreign sisters in the arts, like the American brethren are in business."

"SMILES"

Refrain
There are smiles that make us happy.
There are smiles that make us blue.
There are smiles that steal away the tear drops

As the sunbeams steal away the dew,
There are smiles that have a tender meaning—
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine

Are the smiles that you give to me.
"TILL WE MEET AGAIN"

Refrain

Smile the while you kiss me sad adieu
When the clouds roll by I'll come to you.

Then the skies will seem more blue,
Down in lovers' lane my dearie,
Wedding bells will ring so merrily
Every tear will be a memory

So wait and pray each night for me
Till we meet again.

T. J. Turley entertained a large party of friends at his Gull lake summer home on the occasion of Mrs. Turley's birthday with an old fashioned Kentucky barbecue wherein roast lamb was the chief dish. Big kettles reposing in long trenches and heated by oak wood roasted the viands to perfection and the open air whetted the appetites of all.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of Oklahoma, T. Bressler and family of Kentucky, Mrs. James M. Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Brouse, Mrs. D. R. Elder of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. M. Johnston, Neil O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Peacock of Duluth, Miss Mabel O'Brien.

Urges Home Life
for German Women

By JOHN GRAUDENZ

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin (By Mail)—"Women ought to be taken out of the labor market just as much as possible."

This is the opinion of Frau von Gierke, of the German national party, one of the women members of the national assembly, chosen after the last winter's revolution. In an interview she declared she believed women ought to take more and more part in internal politics, but decried any attempt to have them in high government places. She said that they ought to be in the home rather than the factory or the office; and that where circumstances positively will not permit them to have home life, then they ought to be trained for the professions.

"I don't believe women should be in cabinet positions," she said. "That would only make the cabinet feminine and weaker, and what is needed is strong manly forcefulness in positions such as the cabinet posts. However, in internal politics, it is different. There, woman acts as a balancing spirit, and takes a fine, wholesome interest in welfare work. Women's inclinations in politics are likely to be more positive than men's for women are generally either entirely conservative or entirely radical."

"As for woman's part in labor, I will say that I believe womankind should be brought back to its natural destiny of motherhood and education of children. It is extremely unfortunate that women have become more and more the competitors of men in the labor market, for labor amongst women is the enemy of family life. It is impossible to be a working-woman and a mother at the same time."

"In my view, industrial conditions ought to be so readjusted that men will have better opportunities for marrying and for supporting families. Then it will be possible for more women to enter their natural sphere of family life. As for women unable to marry, more opportunities should be opened for their education for professional lines."

Frau von Gierke, as a conservative, does not believe in "equalizing everything," as she put it. She believes that the German educational system is adequate, but holds that the "Kultur" that comes of family life and training ought to be developed.

Must be in by August 23

All entries of fancy work, cooking and china for exhibit in the woman's work department at the Minnesota State Fair and Victory Exposition, August 30 to September 6, must be in by Saturday, August 23, according to an announcement by Mrs. Bertha Dahl Laws, superintendent of the woman's work department.

Goods may be delivered later than August 23 says Mrs. Laws, but entries will close on that date and no late entries will be received. Many excellent specimens of cooking, fancy work and decorated china had to be rejected last year because the entries arrived too late. It is desired to avoid repetition of instances where women traveling from quite a distance brought heavy suitcases of goods for exhibit at the fair but could not enter them because entries had closed.

He Had One Better.

One of our honest old farmers came home and found a sewing-machine man in the house demonstrating to the women what fine work it would do. The agent asked the farmer to bring in a shingle, and said: "I will show you that the Wonder Worker machine will do heavy work, for I will stitch right across the tip of the shingle where it is at least one-sixteenth of an inch thick."

"Not interested," said the farmer. "Over 'cross here 'bout three miles northeast a young man built a house last summer, and I'll be darned if his wife didn't take her Mechanical Marvel sewing machine and stitch on every blame course of clapboards, from gable to eaves, clean down to the sill."

As the agent slammed his machine into his light truck and chugged away, the farmer turned to his wife and said: "Well, Rita, I sewed that agent up all right, didn't I? Now let's have supper."—Bangor News.

SCRUBBING UP THE OLD LEGGINS

There was a time in this soldier's life when scrubbing leggings should have appealed to him, but it's a pleasure divine now. You see, those old leggings are going to take part in the Peace Jubilee at the Minnesota State Fair and Victory Exposition, Aug. 30 to Sept. 6.

GOOD WORK IN CANAL ZONE

Archdeacon Carson Tells of Religious Activities Among Those Employed on the "Big Ditch."

Few men perhaps have so intimate a knowledge of the spiritual progress made in the canal zone as the Rev. Henry Roberts Carson, archdeacon of the Protestant Episcopal church there.

From those days when the canal was yet a great doubt until the present, Mr. Carson has been laboring among the employees of the canal that they might have comfort of body and welfare of soul. White and black, the men there know him well and have come to love him, for Archdeacon Carson was with them in the now almost forgotten days when fever raged upon the isthmus and each noon struck men to the death.

Those early days Archdeacon Carson recalled in the missions house of the Protestant Episcopal church at New York the other day, before returning to the canal zone.

"We were few in number then and the work was more than enough for many," he said. "The employees, most of them natives of the British West Indies, were housed in labor camps here and there, for the channel was not cut through from one end to the other; but activities were everywhere along its path."

"And in these camps we started churches and the church moved when the camp moved, for when the work in that immediate vicinity was completed the camp went elsewhere. When the water was turned into the canal it submerged these places where we had held divine service."

While the work stretches from one ocean to the other, with churches at a dozen places, some of the most unselfish labor is among lepers in the mission of the Holy Comfort on the west coast. There are to be found some 80 patients, including about a dozen children, and not a week passes without services being held for them.

Crippled Soldier Pleasantly Surprised at Result of Work at Which He Amused Himself.

How a ring got a wounded soldier a new occupation in life is told by the federal board for vocational education, which is helping the handicapped men of the army, navy and marine corps get back into the workaday world.

A veteran of Gallenu wood called upon the board. His left leg gone, he appeared listless and without hope. He sat talking to the adviser, now and then slowly turning a ring on his finger. The adviser, to get the man's confidence, asked to see the ring.

The man suddenly became animated. "I made that," he said. "Hammered it out of silver myself, and engraved those figures on the outside. Nothing but some playing of mine," he added. The adviser looked at the ring, noted the engraving, and said:

"How would you like to learn engraving?"

"Doing this?" said the soldier, fingering his ring. "Say, this ain't work—it's just play."

"Let's have a try at it," replied the adviser.

The federal board sent the man to learn engraving, and in a few months he qualified for a good job in a jewelry store.

Do your Jams and Jellies ever "Candy"?

Many women have been so discouraged by this trouble that they have almost stopped putting up fruit.

Yet, there is an easy, simple way to avoid it. Use $\frac{1}{2}$ Karo (Red Label) and $\frac{1}{2}$ sugar in your preserving syrup, instead of sugar alone.

Karo is a fine, clear syrup, with a natural affinity for the juices of the fruit.

It blends the sugar with the fruit juice—brings out all the "fruity" flavor.

You, too, will obtain perfect results this summer if you will use $\frac{1}{2}$ Karo (Red Label) and $\frac{1}{2}$ sugar instead of all sugar for preserving.

You will find your jelly clear and firm—your preserves rich with heavy syrup—your jams deliciously mellow and "fruity". Not a sign of "candyng".

For Cooking, Baking and Candy-Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

5 BOYS IN COURT, DATE HEARING SET

Charged with Breaking into Warehouse of Jacob Miller and Taking 97 Bottles Non-Alco

TRACED BY CHIEF C. H. VARNER

Certified to Probate Court Sitting as Juvenile Court, Hearing on Aug. 21, 2 P. M.

Charged with breaking into the storage warehouse of Jacob Miller on Front street and taking 97 bottles of Non Alco, five boys were brought into municipal court before Judge Walter F. Wieland, arrested on complaint of Chief of Police C. H. Varner.

They were separately interrogated by Judge Wieland as to ages and their cases were then transferred to the probate court sitting as a juvenile court, the hearing there set for 2 p. m., Thursday, August 21.

The five boys gave their names and ages as follows:

Sam Greer son of James Greer, 822 South Seventh street, age 15.

Glenn Jones, son of Peter Jones, 214 South Third street, age 14.

Tuber Rose, stepson of George Rose, 419-1/2 Front street, age 14.

John Holden, son of Iver Holden, 520 Laurel street, age 16.

Bob Turner, son of Emory Scott Turner, 419 Quince street, age 12.

The fact that some of the boys present smiled at the proceedings called forth a lecture from County Attorney S. F. Alderman who said the proceedings were no laughing matter. The charge of breaking into a warehouse and stealing stuff was a serious one. In line with this he mentioned complaints made by other people regarding loss of garden stuff, destruction of fruit trees, etc. and complaints of other thieving which would be investigated and the guilty ones punished.

Judge Wieland further lectured the boys for their apparent levity and said it was a serious matter when such a charge as first made was brought against the five. Each boy and his parents was instructed to appear at the probate court Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Turner boy was further questioned by the court and admitted he had been in court before and had been admonished at that time to keep out of further trouble.

The Greer and Jones boys were represented by Attorney W. H. Crowell.

J. E. EMME ON LABOR PROBLEMS

St. Paul Shopman Urged Consolidation of Unions into Several Big Industrial Ones

REDUCE NUMBER OF OFFICERS

Argued Having One Union of Farmers Regardless of What They Raised or Where Laboring

J. E. Emme of St. Paul spoke at an open air meeting in Brainerd Sunday afternoon the rostrum being the Gregory park bandstand. Mr. Emme is a St. Paul shopman and a member of the shopmen's joint legislative committee and was a candidate for the mayoralty. He was introduced by Mayor F. E. Little.

Mr. Emme urged the consolidation of unions in six grand divisions, transportation, farming, mining, manufacturing, distribution and education. Some of you laboring men, he said, belong to a central labor body, to a state federation, a district council, metal trades grand lodge, federation, etc., and when you survey the field you find 12 or 14 organizations trying to do the same thing. Consolidation, said he, would enable 2,000 men to speak as effectively for labor as 8,000 officers for many unions now do, thus effecting economy in operations.

Mr. Emme gave a review of organized labor's advance. The recent strike, said he, was remarkable insofar as sheet metal workers, boiler-makers, cartmen, helpers, etc., laid down their tools and in a week the government had to recognize the situation.

He argued against the plan of the American Federation of Labor granting new charters to newly developed trades, and stated for instance, that aeroplane drivers, aeroplane mail clerks, etc. could be grouped in one main body, that of transportation.

"Under McAdoo," said the speaker, "the railway administration was a notorious failure. The railways were attempting to stick the government and the men were not consulted about the management."

In speaking of the farmers he mentioned "the league" as sweeping the Dakota's and entering Minnesota. The farmers organization should take in all farmers, sheep, wheat, cotton, corn, etc.

As to mining, the men at work at the job were better able to decide questions at issue than owners and their agents in offices in Boston 2000 miles away.

There should be control of the industry by the men who work in the same, said the speaker, and an equitable distribution of profits. He denied that the labor movement as he saw it was one tending to destroy. It was a matter of education to recruit men for the greater industrial union.

He did not seem to be enthused about the Plumb law for operating railways which provided that the president appoint five, the railway operators five and the workers five. This was good provided the president appointed the right kind of men.

Regarding good roads, he said the workers should get the chauffeurs to consolidate or the railway men, disposing of their interests, would curtail the truck carrying trade and thus utilize good roads at small expense.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a political meeting was held at the Trades & Labor hall, as announced from the platform in the afternoon.

PLANTING RYE

That Planted in August Yields Very Much More Than That Which is Planted Later

Farmers in the stump land district of northern Minnesota who plant winter rye in August can make an investment in war savings stamps equal to the entire crop return of those who do not plant until October 1 and still receive as much for their rye crop as do those planting on the later date. This is set forth in a recent bulletin of the college of agriculture, University of Minnesota, which shows that winter rye yields twice as much in that district if planted August 15 as does that planted October 1.

Winter rye sowed August 15, yielded this year 44 bushels an acre, that planted September 15 averaged 27.1 bushels while that sowed October 1 yielded but 22.9 bushels.

"This reveals what the treasury department considers an almost perfect instance of thrift. Thought and knowledge, applied to the sowing of a rye field can double the crop yield. That increases production and adds to the national surplus," said M. E. Harrison, director of the Ninth District War Savings organization. "That man who creates the surplus makes saving actual. If he uses judgement in the investment, so that the money invested is safe, he makes the saving secure. The most readily available investment and also the safest is the war savings stamp."

Cherries, Soup and Rice Quickly Sold Out—Today is the Last Day to Send in Order

Sales of army food supplies at the Brainerd postoffice in charge of Postmaster H. P. Dunn amounted to over $500 on Tuesday. On Wednesday the list of purchasers numbered 23 to the noon hour.

Cherries, soup and rice were quickly sold out. There are still fair amounts of canned bacon, roast beef, etc. on hand. The office was credited with jam, pineapples and toilet soap, but did not get them in their quota.

Although the number of purchasers may seem small, yet in many cases they represent neighborhoods clubbing together and remitting through one household.

Joy for Philatelist.

The postage stamp collector, the philatelist, is in a new haven of joy. The changed world is developing new stamps and hundreds have already appeared in this country.

One of the prettiest of the stamps is from a new republic of Czechoslovakia. Several scores of varieties have emanated since the dual monarchy, Austria-Hungary, disintegrated under war pressure.

Jugo-Slavia also is in line with a number of new stamps that delight the collector, and the Hungarian republic is printing 28 different stamps for temporary use until a permanent series can be decided upon. Estonia is in line with at least four varieties. Livonia has 11 new stamps; and the republic of Poland is offering an unusual stamp with 60 varieties.—Detroit News.

"Sure," he replied, "Isn't it all right? He's going to let me have 10 cents and I'm going to pay him back 11 cents."

Wondering where he had acquired his idea of interest, I asked: "Why the extra cent?"

"That 1 cent is for war tax."—Chicago Tribune.

Meats in Storage Not "Hoarded"

Live stock is a seasonal crop—like cereals and grains.

It is "ripe" and is marketed in larger quantities in certain months. This causes a natural oversupply at one time and a natural shortage at another.

During the time of oversupply Swift & Company places some of the meat in cold storage, against the season of short production.

This is a necessity in order that the nation's ration of meat—58,000,000 pounds every day in the year—may be forthcoming as the consumer requires it.

This is not hoarding, not price manipulation, not market control. It is mere common sense.

United States Bureau of Markets' figures of stocks of frozen and cured meats July 1 are being used as a basis for Department of Justice investigations in many cities. When properly analyzed, based on Swift & Company's stocks, these figures show:

62 per cent (approximate) is pork and beef cuts, etc., cured and in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the curing process.

12 per cent is frozen pork, of which more than three-quarters is to be cured in the next few months.

7 per cent is lard. This is a normal supply and only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.

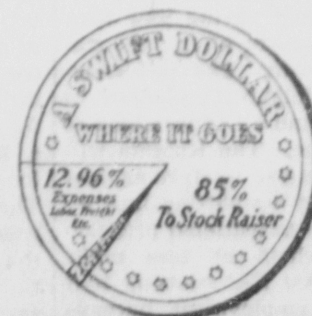

19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, and miscellaneous meats, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for overseas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels it would be only 2 1/2 lbs. per capita—a 5 days' supply.

100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

SERIES BRAINERD VS IRONTON

Crowds Planning to Motor to Homecoming Celebration at Ironton on Friday, August 22

JACK WOOD ON THE MOUND

All Star Lineup of Brainerd Prepared to Get the Big End of the Score at Ironton

No series in recent years played in Central Minnesota has attracted as much attention as the present series between Brainerd and Ironton. The first game played Sunday, August 17, resulted in a victory for the Central Minnesota champions, the pennant winning Brainerd team, with a score of 2 to 1. The game was one of the most interesting battles seen on the local field and the game next Friday at Ironton's home coming celebration will undoubtedly prove just as close and exciting.

Jack Wood, the sensational pitcher secured from Little Falls, will be on the mound for Brainerd, and the rest of the All Star lineup of Sunday will be in their positions. There are many fans throughout the surrounding towns who want to see Wood go in a Brainerd uniform, and the attendance at the coming game will undoubtedly break all Central Minnesota records.

The game will start at 3:30 p. m., being the headliner of the afternoon sports. Another thing to attract Brainerd fans is the boxing match scheduled between Louis Imgrund, Brainerd, of the 308th Machine Gun Battalion vs. Pug Young of Crosby, champion of the navy. There will be three boxing matches with the Imgrund-Young bout as the main feature.

BUNTS AND STRIKES

Ironton has lost Wolfe, the crack shortstop, who has gone to Louisville, Kentucky, where he will finish the season. The Ironton News states he had several letters and telegrams urging him to come and at last decided to go. He is without doubt the fastest player that the team has had for some time.

The Brainerd team practiced faithfully and thoroughly on Tuesday evening.

Besemer, new man in right field, showed up well in the August 17 game with Ironton. He got a run, two hits and two putouts.

Diedrich, Pemidji man on third base, figured in the lightning double play that put out Ironton in the ninth. He had a putout and two assists to his credit.

Brainerd's hitting artillery centered in four men, Richardson with 2, Cook with 1, Besemer 2 and Sheffo 1. Ironton had 9 hits but they were mostly of the inopportune kind.

Legislators Must Work.

A novel method of forcing attendance in the chamber of deputies of the Republic of Argentina has been suggested by a member who is out of patience with those who draw their salaries from the public purse but fail to fulfill their constitutional obligation of regular attendance.

The suggestion is in the form of a bill providing for payment per day to deputies instead of a lump sum every month. Failure to answer the roll call is equivalent to absence, and the measure provides that no deputy shall receive his pay for days when he is absent from the regular sessions.

Land for National Forests.

The national forest reservation commission has just approved for purchase 48,581 acres of land for national forests in the White mountains, Southern Appalachians and Arkansas.

The largest tracts are in the White mountains, where 31,022 acres in Carroll and Grafton counties, New Hampshire, and 1,220 acres in Oxford county, Maine, were approved for purchase at an average price of $7.15 per acre. These lands include the scenic peaks of Mount Chochoqua and Mount Panguis, much visited by tourists and made accessible by trails maintained by the Chochoqua club.

India Again Importing.

All restrictions on the importation into India of any American manufactures or products, with the exception of gold and silver coin or bullion and cocaine, have been removed. Importation of cocaine and allied drugs is forbidden at all times except under a license granted by the chief customs officer at the place of import. The importation of gold and silver coin and bullion is restricted in that the government of India reserves the right to purchase all importations of same.

Neglecting Opportunities.

"They say the peach crop is unusually fine this year."
"Then what are so many fellows doing marrying over there in France?"

The N. Y. Giants Under Police Protection in Cincinnati

So great is the rivalry between the N. Y. Giants and the Cincinnati Reds in the race for the National League pennant that, in the recent series in Cincinnati, the local management thought it best to have the police protect the visiting team. It reminds one of the days when visiting teams had to ride in closed buses to avoid the attacks of the frenzied local fans.

VETERAN CRAVATH IS BRAINY BALL PLAYER

Newly Appointed Manager Is Oldest Man on Team.

Doing Better Work for Phillies This Season Than for Several Years—Batting Pacemaker of National League.

The one real, outstanding platoon player on the team's pay roll, namely, the well-known and dangerous Clifford Carlton Cravath, who has just been appointed manager of the club, succeeding Jack Coombs, Mr. Cravath hit the thirty-seven-year mark on March 23 last. Hitting the thirty-seven mark is the worst thing Gabby has done in his life. He hits the ball much harder.

The only active player now in baseball who is older than Cravath is Dode Paskert of the Cubs. Paskert will be thirty-eight years old next August.

Cravath, on the road to thirty-eight years of age, is the wonder of baseball.

Clifford Carlton Cravath.

Today finds him the batting pacemaker of one of the major leagues. He is playing better ball this year than he has done in the last three or four seasons.

A common estimate of Cravath is that he is a slow-thinking, slow-moving, slow-fielding, good-natured chap who pounds out base hits by sheer might. If it is the common analysis it is the wrong one. Cravath is probably the headiest ball player on his team. He is lasting years after most players pass into retirement, because of brains.

Cravath can divine the intention of an opposing pitcher far better than his younger and more agile pals. He has a pair of sharpshooter eyes and uses them for seeing purposes. When Cravath drives out a smoking hit you can rest assured that he knew what was being served to him and was set for it. There is no hit-or-miss style with him.

He knows how to play for batsmen in right field and plays hits against the wall at the Philadelphia park better than any other right-fielder with the Phils or on an opposing team. Cravath makes his defensive skill all the more valuable by his uncanny throwing. Cravath actually is one of the best throwing outfielders in America. Speaker can heave a ball faster, but even Speaker can't throw with the judgment of Cravath.

NEW-WORLD KNIGHTS STRONG PEACE ARMY

K-C Growth Forms Effective Barrier to Bolshevism and Other Evils.

One of the reasons why the Knights of Columbus were able to render such valuable service to the men in the uniform of the United States army, navy and marines was that back of the K. of C. and the public support they received was a thriving fraternal organization, growing rapidly in all parts of the North American continent. William J. McGinley of New York, Supreme Secretary of the K. of C., in his annual report to the Supreme Convention of the K. of C., shows that the Knights have had a magnificent organization with which to put into effect their various movements for the benefit of the nation's defenders.

WILLIAM J. MCGINLEY,
K. of C. Secretary, Who Plays Leading Role in Great Peace Work.

The K. of C. membership is now well on the way to the 600,000 mark, and by the end of the year, at the present rate of growth, it is estimated the Knights will number approximately one million.

More than 120,000 new members were added to the K. of C. in the past twelve months. A feature of this wonderful growth of the organization has been the steady increase in membership from the ranks of the U. S. Army and Navy. The K. of C. made it a rigid rule that no attempt be made on the part of their war workers to in any way recruit members among the millions of army and navy men entertained and served by the Knights. But thousands of service men have sought to join the organization.

The finances of the Knights of Columbus, Secretary McGinley's report shows, are in an exceptionally flourishing condition. The present assets of the K. of C., exclusive, of course, of the special war funds, are over $8,500,000. The influenza epidemic cost the Knights the past year in payments to beneficiaries of insurance members $1,140,000. The total death benefits paid during the year amounted to $2,175,094.98, making a total of $13,123,640.76 since the beginning of the order. The total insurance in force this year in the K. of C. amounts to $161,353,565.33.

There were 5,676 deaths in the organization during the year, of which 3,150 were members who had insurance in the order. Despite this, however, there was a gross increase in membership of 121,891. Over $1,000 associate members joined the Knights during the year. Every insurance commissioner has pronounced the K. of C. an exceptionally strong organization.

The Knights, with this vast increase in membership, are turning their entire energies toward solving the problems of peace after having met with conspicuous success in aiding the nation during the war. The full membership of the Knights is pledged to fight Bolshevism and all expressions of extreme radicalism. The Knights will also carry an offensive warfare against economic disorders by putting into effect a nation-wide educational program—an immense chain of free night schools. The 2,000 K-C councils that are serving as employment bureaus for returned fighting men will form the K-C supplementary school units.
